Eastern's Staff

Athletic Director

Dr. Robert B. Anderson remains, for the third year, as EWSC athletic director. A professor of physical education at EWSC, Anderson has been an assistant football coach and tennis coach. He has degrees from Montana State, where he played football, and from the University of Oregon.

Head Football Coach

Dr. John Massengale returns for his second year as head grid mentor. Last year, he succeeded Brent Wooten on an interim basis; since then, he has been named to the job on a permanent basis with Wooten returning from work on a doctorate to teach in the EWSC park administration and recreation program.

Massengale led the Savages to a 5-5 record last year, taking over after two years as a Savage defensive coach. He came to Eastern from the University of New Mexico where he was frosh coach.

Assistant Coaches

Three veteran assistants return for 1972. They are Jerry Martin, Curt Byrnes and Don Kallam, back after a leave of absence.

In addition, three graduate assistants will help with the coaching. Randy Behrens, a 1967 graduate of Eastern and an outstanding defensive back, will return for another year of coaching defensive backs. Mick Landmark, offensive line coach, and Jerry Jantz, wide receiver coach will assume the graduate assistant positions opened when Clair Foley and Dick Zorner left.

Assistant Coaches

Curt Byrnes, a 1965 Eastern graduate and a standout football player and wrestler, is in his third year as an assistant at Eastern. He will coach linebackers. Byrnes is also Eastern's wrestling coach.

Gerry Martin is also in his third year as an assistant at Eastern. He came to the Savages from Spokane's North Central High School, and has also coached at his alma mater, Washington State, and at Columbia Basin College. He will work with the Savage offensive backfield.

Don Kallem, an assistant for five years, will work with the offensive line. Kallem is also the Savage's golf coach.

Randy Behrens did an excellent job last year as defensive back coach after spending several years in the Army after graduation from Eastern in 1967. He is a graduate assistant working on his master's degree. While attending Eastern, he was an outstanding defensive back.

Mick Landmark is a graduate assistant who will assume the offensive line coaching duties. He comes to Eastern after playing for Norfolk in the Continental League for four years. While playing for the Savages in 1964 to 1966, he was an all-conference guard and tackle.

Jerry Jantz, another graduate assistant, is coaching wide receivers this year. He was an all-conference safety for Eastern in 1967. He has been teaching school in Neah Bay for the past few years.

EWSC 1972 FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

Eastern has a nucleus of excellent returning ballplayers to begin the 1972 season. After a dismal 1970 season, the Savages ended the 1971 season with a win that gave them a .500 season and third place in the Evergreen Conference with a 3-2 EvCo record.

Four teams are expected to vie for the conference championship this season. Western Washington, 1971 winner, Central Washington, Oregon College of Education and Eastern have been picked by sportswriters as the teams most likely to have a shot at the title.

Savage Quarterback Pete Glindeman and his favorite target, Bob Picard, will be back for another season and their exploits will be the focal point of the Savage offense. Picard, a second team NAIA all-American in 1971, caught 57 passes for 787 yards and eight touchdowns last year. With running back Mel Collins gone, the passing combinations of Glindeman and Pickard will figure heavily in Savage game plans.

Phil Wheat rushed for 404 yards last year as fullback and is the mainstay in this season's offensive backfield. Joining him this year is his brother Doug, also a fullback. John O'Connor and Dwayne Bowles, both experienced halfbacks from last year's team, will also see much action.

Eastern's offensive line is stacked with talent including two outstanding returnees in Wally Suafoa, an all-conference guard, and Jim Bryant, a two-year letterman at center. Jim Withrow, a 240-pound offensive tackle just out of the service and Richard Evans, a junior guard redshirted last year, will also be instrumental in providing running room for the backfield.

Defensively, Eastern has many returning lettermen including defensive tackle John Witt, linebackers John Van Deelen and Al Bushnell, defensive halfback John Daniels and safety Kerry Hawley.

Eastern's coaches as well as the sportswriters are predicting a good season ahead for the Savages if everyone stays healthy. Not only might the team do well, but several individuals are talented enough to qualify as NAIA all-Americans.
